

Digital Certification Services Statistics

About Digital Certification

Ensure that digital transactions are conducted with high reliability and that they have legal validity by adopting the latest advanced global technologies to verify the integrity and confidentiality of data.

The added value of using digital certification

Data content integrity

Reduce identity theft and forgery

Support digital transformation

Protect documents from damage

Easy verification of documents' authenticity

Legal validity

About Digital Certification

The service provides beneficiary entities with

A safe digital environment

Proof of identity on digital documents

Increased efficiency in signing documents and contracts digitally

Received global recognition from international organizations and companies

Digital Certification Services

Digital Stamp (Seal)

A digital certificate issued to entities proving the identity of the organization and ensuring the integrity and legal value of the document in e-transactions.

Digital Trust Service Provider (Digital Signature)

A service that enables government entities to issue and manage digital certificates for their employees in order to contribute to raising the level of safety and reliability in e-transactions.

Initiative: Digital Stamp (Seal)

Saudi Data & AI Authority

National Information Center

Advanced Recognition and Digital Identity

Sector

The number of stamps is 25

The number of joined
entities is 24

The total number of stamping processes
since the launch of the service is 1,505,692

The service launch date is 01/01/2020

Initiative: Digital Trust Service Provider (Digital Signature)

Saudi Data & AI Authority

National Information Center

Advanced Recognition and Digital Identity

Sector

The number of joined
entities is 100

The service launch date is 01/01/2010

